Finns Forced Back By Soviets To New Lines

Heavy Toll Being Exacted On Reds As They Advance

HELSINKI, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The Finnish high command today announced Russian attacks from the Arctic to the Gulf of Finland and acknowledged the Finnish forces had withdrawn to new defensive positions after an all-day Russian assault in the Arctic region of Petsamo.

In the north the Finns said they withdrew to new positions at Nautsi, on the Norwegian border 65 miles south of Petsamo.

In the South, the daily army communique reported, the Russians were driving across the Bay of Viipuri, attacking islands in the southwestern part of the bay, naval key to Viipuri, after having occupied the strategic fortifications on the islands of Koivisto.

The Russians also continued attacks on the isthmus of Karelia in their drive toward Viipuri desperately fighting Finnish forces at Somme, Naykkijarvi, Lake Perojoki, Ayrapaanjarvi and Salmenkaita, the high command said in its daily communique. These positions are in the Mannerheim line southeast and east of Viipuri, and have been mentioned in previous Finnish communiques as scenes of fierce combat.

"The enemy suffered heavy casualties as the fighting continues," the communique said.

"Our troops captured large quantities of infantry arms and destroyed 18 tanks," the communique said of this action.

At the extreme opposite end of the Mannerheim line, at Taipale on the shore of Lake Ladoga, the Finns "again repelled a powerful enemy attack," said the communique, "hurling the enemy back to his starting positions."

The Finns announced a large Russian offensive against Taipale last week as the invaders attempted to turn this eastern flank of the Mannerheim defenses.

Surge of Man Power

Soviet Russia's vast manpower surged relentlessly against Finland's bending Mannerheim line today as the Finns acknowledged that the loss of their powerful Koivisto fortress was a serious blow.

(A Russian communique reported the capture of the 788th Finnish Defensive fortifcation, 10,000 shells and over 5,000,000 cartridges. The shells, cartridges and 26 fortifications were taken in the Koivisto area, the communique said.)

Without attempting to minimize the loss of Koivisto's heavy guns which controlled the entrance to Viipuri harbor and anchored the western end of the Mannerheim line, the Finns pointed out the full effect of the loss would not be felt until spring when the ice breaks up and there might be developments which would present a more favorable picture for Finland.

A Finnish officer explained the Finns were defending and then gradually withdrawing along the Karelian isthmus while exacting a heavy toll of advancing troops. The treat was to conserve manpower, he said.

Discuss Laws On Wildlife

About two hundred men were in attendance at a meeting of the Farmers' and Sportsmen's Alliance at the circuit court room in Versailles Monday night. The session was presided over by Douglas Hubbard, mayor of Versailles, a former Sedalian.

Other speakers were D. E. Gilmore, Windsor, W. C. Cain, Sedalia and Gene Williams, of Morgan county. The latter reported that there were 847 signatures in Versailles and the southern part of Morgan county on the petitions asking for the repeal of the amendment governing game laws.

There was a general discussion of the conservation laws, and the men were of the opinion that even if concessions were made for the Lake of the Ozarks region, the fight should be carried out until changes were made that would effect all parts of the state.

Jail for Petit Larceny

Joe Preuitt, arrested Saturday evening shoplifing at the Montgomery-Ward store, pleaded guilty to petit larceny to Judge C. W. Bente, sitting as ex-officio justice of the peace, and was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

Preuitt stole three shirts at the store.

Bothwell Hospital Notes

James Skinner, Lincoln, was admitted to the hospital for medical attention. His condition is said to be serious.

Inquest Into Girl's Death

JOPLIN, Mo., Feb. 27—(AP)—Miss Eula Gipson, 28, comely operator in a beauty shop, who was slashed and beaten to death near a night club Wednesday night, "came to her death by hands of unknown party or parties," a coroner's jury decided following an inquest last night.

Only a few witnesses, including S. D. (Kate) Melton, operator of the night club where the young woman danced before her gruesome death, testified.

Delmar Petty, 32, who faces a charge of first degree murder in connection with Miss Gipson's death, did not appear. He is held without bail in the county jail at Carthage.

Roy Coyne, prosecuting attorney, alleges Petty was the young woman's companion the night she was slain.

Farmer Ends His Life; Hangs Self In Barn

Joseph Reed Is Found Dead By His Brother

Joseph Reed, 56 years old, bachelor residing with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Reed, eleven miles southwest of Sedalia committed suicide about 9:30 o'clock this morning by hanging himself. Mr. Reed left his home and went to the barn obtained a rope and then hung himself from a rafter in the loft.

His brother, Charles Reed, becoming aware of his absence from the home started to look for him and went to the barn. He found his brother and let him down but he was already dead. Dr. H. A. Hite, Green Ridge, was notified and after viewing the body notified Dr. Gordon Stauffacher coroner who went to the scene.

Dr. Stauffacher stated it was not necessary to hold an inquest it being evident Mr. Reed took his own life because of despondency over ill health. According to information given Dr. Stauffacher Mr. Reed has been in poor health since last fall and he appeared to be very despondent over his condition.

Alarmed at Absence

Mr. Reed said his brother was up and about the farm this morning, and himself not feeling well the past few days was in his bed. Shortly before 9 o'clock Joseph came into the house, laid down on a cot for a while and about 9:30 o'clock got up and walked out. He did not say anything to other members of the house at the time, but when he failed to return in a few minutes Charles got up and went to look for him.

Although he had never made any threats of taking his life the family watched over him closely.

Mr. Reed was born on a farm three miles south of Green Ridge May 29, 1883 the son of Nathan and Jennie Reed. His entire life has been spent in the Green Ridge neighborhood.

Surviving besides his parents are three brothers Charles and Don both of the family home, George Reed, residing four miles south of Green Ridge, four sisters, Misses Mildred and Esther of the home, Mrs. Randolph McCampbell of Green Ridge and Mrs. Bert Stickrod, of near Windsor. Another sister, Mrs. Frank Wilson, passed away in 1913.

The body was brought to the Ewing Funeral Home. No funeral arrangements have been made.

Armistice In World War Halted Plan Of Gen. Pershing

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—(AP)—Woodrow Wilson's rejection of a plan which General John J. Pershing thought would hasten the end of the World War was disclosed today by the state department's publication of a letter from the wartime president to Secretary of State Robert Lansing.

The letter, found among the confidential papers given the state department by Lansing's family, concerned a proposal by Pershing on August 30, 1918, for simultaneous military and diplomatic offensives on all fronts as a final sledge-hammer blow to the weakening Germans.

(Another of the Lansing papers published recently disclosed, however, that Pershing opposed the armistice two months later because he wanted the allies to push on to "complete victory" in order to assure permanent peace.)

At Pershing's request, the diplomatic lianon officer with the supreme war council wrote to President Wilson:

"He (Pershing) believes that the successful advance of the allies on the western front will continue and while he does not consider that the Germans are yet beaten, he is satisfied that the morale of their troops is bad.

"Under these circumstances, he thinks that united action should be taken to bring about the end of the war if possible before next year."

The Pershing Plan

Under the Pershing plan President Wilson would:

1. Urge the allies to attack simultaneously on the Italian front, at Saloniki, and in Mesopotamia if possible.

2. "Address words of encouragement to that section of the Russian public which is pro-ally."

3. Intimate to Austria-Hungary, Bulgaria and Turkey (Germany's allies) "that the time has come for them to yield."

4. Apply pressure on the neu-

Peace Letter Of President Is Handed Pope

Myron C. Taylor Special Envoy In Call At Vatican

VATICAN CITY, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Myron C. Taylor, special envoy from President Roosevelt, today handed Pope Pius XII a letter expressing the president's hope for "re-establishment of a more permanent peace on the foundations of freedom and assurance of the life and integrity of all nations under God."

The letter presented Taylor to the American president's "old and good friend," who as Eugeno Cardinal Pacelli visited him in the United States in 1936.

The president told the pope he hoped "the common ideals of religion and humanity itself can have a united expression for the re-establishment of a more permanent peace."

The Vatican released the president's letter to the pope together with one from Mr. Roosevelt to Taylor naming him his special ambassador to the pope.

Both messages spoke of Taylors job as to serve as "a channel of communication" between the president and the head of the Roman Catholic church.

The president told the pope he was sending Taylor "in order that our parallel endeavors for peace and the alleviation of suffering might be assisted."

The letter spoke of Taylor's "humanitarian efforts in behalf of those whom political disruption has rendered homeless," referring to his as chief of the intergovernmental committee for refugee relief.

Welles Meets With Envoys

ROME, Feb. 27—(AP)—Sumner Welles, President Roosevelt's special investigator in Europe, today began a series of talks with ambassadors of belligerent powers by conferring for half an hour at the United States embassy with Sir Percy Loraine, Britain's envoy to Italy.

The talk preceded a luncheon at which Welles was to meet both Sir Percy and Andre Francois-Poncet, French ambassador, at the residence of William Phillips, the United States ambassador.

Wants Lost Colonies

BERLIN, Feb. 27—Informed German circles expressed the belief today that Adolf Hitler would tell Sumner Welles in no uncertain terms that the reich demands hegemony on the European continent and return of her world war lost colonies.

The fuehrer, it was generally believed, would propose no peace plan to President Roosevelt's envoy who is on a fact-finding tour of European capitals.

From the insistence of recently inspired press articles that nonbelligerents maintain complete neutrality rather than mere official neutrality, the opinion was advanced that Hitler and the American undersecretary of state would discuss the preservation of "more complete neutrality" by the United States.

Eleven Die In Crash Of Airplane

BUCARAMANGA, Colombia, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Eleven persons were reported killed today when a bimotor passenger plane of the Scadta Line crashed near this northeastern Colombia town.

The plane, piloted by Captain Alberto Fernandez, veteran of half a million kilometers (310,000 miles) at the controls, fell shortly after taking off from Bucaramanga for Cucuta.

Names of the victims were not immediately disclosed by the Scadta Line.

Salem Merchant Murder Victim

SALEM, MO., Feb. 27—(AP)—A coroner's jury today, after lengthy deliberation, decided Bruce Butler, 53, local merchant whose body was found in an abandoned water-filled iron mine excavation at the edge of Salem Sunday, came to his death from gunshot wounds inflicted by persons unknown.

Butler, owner of a second-hand furniture store, had been missing since December 17, according to Prosecuting Attorney C. R. Hays, of Dent county. He was presumably preparing to go to St. Louis to buy furniture when he disappeared.

Hays said Butler was seen, on the day of his disappearance, with an unidentified man.

The body, weighted with a stone and with a 32 calibre bullet hole in the head, was found by two boys who were hunting sassafras roots. The head was protruding from the murky water in the mine pit, which had been frozen most of the time since the middle of December.

Hays said there was no water in the lungs and that it is evident the man was shot to death.

Robbery apparently was the motive, according to the prosecuting attorney, who said so far as known Butler had no enemies.

Secret Pacts On Armaments

France Agrees To Furnish Supply For Rumania

BUCHAREST, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Three secret agreements whereby France will supply Rumania with large quantities of warplanes, machine-guns and other armaments were reported today.

Signing of the contract was reported unofficially as a Rumanian finance commission returned from Paris.

Britain, it also was learned, already has flown 60 Spitfire pursuit ships and Bristol Blenheim bombers to this country.

The French and British action was described as following upon receipt of assurances from Rumania that Germany would not be favored in exports of Rumanian oil.

This produced some uneasiness here as to Germany's future action toward Rumania, particularly in view of the expected arrival of a German economist this week to seek more oil.

Meanwhile, Italian negotiators began conferences which observers believed might develop into a Balkan economic contest with Germany.

Launching of discussions with the Italian trade mission here caused widespread speculation in foreign diplomatic quarters as to Italy's motives in seeking an increased share of Rumanian exports—at the moment when either Germany or the British-French Allies have contracted for nearly everything.

Most informed circles held the belief Italy was seeking to nudge our Germany and resell Rumanian goods in world markets for gold.

German quarters openly expressed anger with the French-Rumanian agreement, especially after the government's action yesterday in raising railway rates on exports, including oil, to Germany.

At the same time French and British quarters declared Rumania must remain "on her good behavior" or there may be a repitition of their action of January when they stopped all raw material exports to this country because Rumania appeared to be favoring the Nazis.

Jury Qualifies for The Death Penalty

MOBERLY, Mo., Feb. 27.—(AP)—A circuit court jury qualified for the death penalty was hearing evidence today in the murder trial of Rollie Carpenter, 57, transient sewing machine repairman. He is charged with the fatal stabbing of Gus Howard, rooming house proprietor.

Carpenter told officers he acted in self defense in the fatal struggle last September 30.

Six Parisians Wounded By Shell Today

One To Hospital For Amputation Of His Right Leg

PARIS, Feb. 27—(AP)—Six Parisians were wounded by an anti-aircraft shell that was fired last night at German planes scouting the environs of Paris for massed squadrons that flew over the capital area early today.

The air raid incident, most serious of its kind since three persons were wounded here Nov. 13, sent one of the victims, 39-year-old Leon Manach, to a hospital for an amputation of his right leg.

When the massed Nazi planes followed the scouts later today it prompted the first air raid alarm of the year.

Today in official notes the military governor of Paris and the prefecture of police warn that all civilians must leave the streets immediately when anti-aircraft batteries go into action, even though no alarm is sounded.

"Yesterday," said the notes, "numerous persons continued to stand and circulate in the streets during the firing."

It was a spring-like evening in Paris when the first two planes appeared, and numerous Parisians ignored the call to take cover and calmly sipped their wine at sidewalk cafes, or hung out apartment windows, or stood on the sidewalks to watch the play of the searchlights against the starlit night.

The cannonading was heard first to the east, then it spread in volume around the city. Radio stations shut down.

The night brought a change in the weather, with low-lying clouds and a drizzling rain, but this did not deter the massed German flight, although perhaps it served to shield Paris. No planes were heard directly over the city, nor was any firing noted during the period of alarm.

The Germans also were reported in flight deep over eastern, northern and northwestern France, with squadrons crossing the frontier and fanning out in various directions.

Correspondent Is Indicted

TOKYO, Feb. 27.—(AP)—James R. Young, of Springfield, Ill., correspondent here for International News Service, was formally indicted today on charges of spreading false rumors and was remanded in Tokyo district court for trial.

Pending trial, date of which was not set, Young will remain in detention. He has been in jail since his arrest January 21. He is charged under the army criminal code.

(Joseph V. Connolly, president of International News Service, said in New York February 2: "All steps are being taken to insure that Mr. Young is adequately defended when his case is brought to trial. He staked his reputation for accuracy and truth upon his dispatches and a fair judgment of the case cannot fail to result in complete exoneration.")

Would Have Ten Years Schooling For Every Child

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—(AP)—A recommendation for ten years' schooling for every child in America came today from a committee of teachers.

The Educational Policies Commission, offering a school program "basically necessary for economic recovery and welfare," declared that boys and girls should not leave school before they are 15.

While every child should finish junior high school, the teachers said, the average child should get free schooling through junior college.

The commission proposed that, with economic recovery, America's annual school bill should be increased by a billion dollars. Expanded education, it said, would increase the nation's productivity.

Other major points in the commission's program were:

1. Expansion of vocational education to a point where boys and girls will leave school ready to enter productive jobs.

2. Free college or university for every child of superior ability who wants to go on with his education, even though his family is unable to finance it.

The commission of 20 educators, chosen by the national education association and the American Association of School administrators, issued its findings in a report enttitled "education and economic well being in the United States." Dr. John K. Norton of Columbia university wrote the document.

Tear Gas Drives Diners Out Into Cold

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The doors of a restaurant were suddenly flung open and 200 persons rushed out into the cold.

A diner had been putting on his overcoat, preparing to leave, when a tear gas pencil slipped from his pocket. The cylinder burst on the floor, quickly filling the restaurant with fumes.

Police said the tear gas pencil owner was Benjamin B. Beeson, of Columbia, Mo., a book salesman. He explained he had carried the cylinder as a souvenir for five years.

Anti-Machine Group At K. C. Pick A Slate

John B. Gage To Head Ticket For April Election

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Six Democrats and five Republicans make up the slate of candidates picked by a coalition of anti-Pendergast organizations for the April 2 city election.

Two of the men chosen to run for the 11 places—mayor, eight councilmen and two municipal judges—have yet to give their consent for their names to go on the ballot.

The Pendergast Democratic organization has not yet announced its candidates.

John B. Gage, Democratic attorney and a Kansas City native, has agreed to head the united campaign committee's ticket as candidate for mayor.

The only two doubtful entries on the coalition side of the race are James M. Green, Democrat, president of the Green Gros. Mercantile Co., proposed as candidate for council in the first district, and John C. Rodahaffer, Republican, executive of the Penrod, Jurden and Clark Corp., proposed as a council candidate in the third district.

For Councilmen

Councilmanic candidates chosen to represent the several coalition organizations, including the regular Republican county organization and several independent Democratic groups, are Walter R. Scott, Republican, Board of Trade secretary, first district; Russell F. Greiner, Democrat, president of Greiner Fifield Lithographing Company, and Joseph C. Fennelly, Republican, vice-president of Cook Paint and Varnish Co., second district; George J. Miller, Democrat, real estate dealer, third district; Merrill K. Dubach, Democrat, insurance man, and Frank B. Blackstrom, Republican, attorney, fourth district.

Edmund Smith, Democrat, and Earle W. Frost, Republican, both attorneys, were chosen as candidates for municipal judges.

Fennelly led the "youth movement" which lost an election to the machine in 1934; backstrom is a former Republican member of the city council; Frost served as an assistant county prosecutor under Forrest Hanna, a Republican, and Smith once before sought a municipal judgeship as an anti-machine Democrat.

Might Endorse Gage

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The Star said today some Pendergast machine leaders were discussing the possibility of endorsing John B. Gage, mayoralty candidate of an anti-machine coalition, in the April 2 city election.

In that event, the paper said, the old Democratic organization would pitch the fight on the selection of its own choices to the city council.

Two Ships Of Nazis Sunk By Allied Vessels

LONDON, Feb. 27.—(AP)—The air ministry announced today that two raiding German planes had been shot down off Britain's coasts as the German air force apparently resumed its widespreading costal raiding.

More Air Activity

LONDON, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Europe's long dormant war stirred with spring restlessness today as the British announced the longest Royal Air Force reconnaissance flights of the war; air raid alarms sounded in Paris, and large Nazi troop movements were reported along the Luxembourg frontier.

In announcing the fourth British excursion over Germany within a week, the air ministry communique said, "our aircraft reconnoitered important seaports in northern Germany and the Baltic."

The Baltic sea—where runs the German iron ore lifeline from Sweden—is nearly 500 miles from the English coast.

British planes, "operating over central Germany penetrated as far as Berlin," the communique declared. Flights also were reported over western Germany and Helgoland.

Last week, the British announced leaflet dropping flights over Austria and Bohemia and reconnaissance trips over Heligoland Bright and northwest Germany.

Planes Over Berlin

The air ministry said last Thursday it "was not generally known" but British planes had flown over Berlin "more than once" since the start of the war.

Germany's aircraft also were active, and Parisians were routed out of bed early today by the first air raid alarm since last November 23.

Observers disclosed massed squadrons of German warplanes had flown over the Paris region for the first time during the war. Until the flight early today, Germany's aerial trips into France had been on a small scare. No bombs were dropped during the 57-minute alarm.

Earlier in the evening, curious thousands had gathered in Paris streets to watch French anti-air-cratf batteries fire at two German planes in the searchlight-brightened sky. The planes were driven off. No alarm was sounded, although the firing lasted 15 minutes.

The cannonading first was heard east of Paris, then grew in volume as the planes, flying high, approached the city.

Observers expressed belief the sudden shift to spring-like weather had brought on the surge of aerial activity.

The aerial uneasiness extended to the Netherlands. Anti-aircraft batteries at Amersfoort and surrounding villages opened fire during the night. Residents reported that planes, believed of foreign nationality, had passed over at high altitude.

Is Finland A Good Risk?

There seems to be some difference of opinion as to how good a loan risk Finland is at the moment.

Practically everyone concedes that any money lent to the stalwart little republic will be repaid—if Finland wins its war with Russia. If if doesn't, there won't be any Finland, and Russia is not likely to assume any obligations undertaken by the Finns.

So the question the United States government and private bankers are trying to answer now is, simply, "Will Finland with the war?"

Jesse H. Jones, federal loan administrator, believes Finland is a good risk, but even he is willing to concede that the question must be reappraised from day to day.

New York bankers, realists in the world of finance, declare flatly that not only would a loan to Finland to be a very shaky venture, but that loans to any of the Scandinavian countries could scarcely be considered in terms of a sound banking investment under present circumstances.

Mr. Jones appeared before the House Banking and Currency committee recently to support the Finnish Aid bill, which would authorize extension of loans from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000 for the Export-Import bank. Primary objective of the bill is to grant Finland an additional loan of $20,000,000 with a similar sum earmarked for China. A $10,000,000 credit was advanced to Finland in December.

Mr. Jones said he felt the Finns would be victorious. He asked members of the House Committee to bear in mind that the Finns had an almost unique reputation among nations of the world for paying their bill. He felt that Finland would be a good risk "as long as she is still fighting in the field with a good chance to win."

Later, he admitted that he could not say whether Finland would get an additional $20,000,000 if it is authorized, because, "to a substantial extent," the loan would depend on Finland's record in battle.

New York bankers meanwhile turned thumbs down on any Scandinavian loan. Informally, they have indicated they would not risk depositors' funds in a defense undertaking as precarious as that which all of Scandinavia faces. Financial help, they said, must come from the United States government and from private individuals sympathetic with the democratic cause.

Bankers cannot be blamed for wanting to protect the money entrusted to their care. Neither can the government be blamed for wanting to help a valiant democracy, nor can private citizens be censured for contributing to the cause.

The important thing to remember is that funds sent to help the Finns may become donations, not because Finland won't repay, but because there may be no Finland. Loans, if they are made, must be made in this spirit.

People must remember that it will be a gamble—a very important gamble to the world. They will be betting on democracy against dictatorship.

Homespun Symphony Music

Where you'd least expect it, a symphony orchestra has sprung up.

It grew out of the soil, among farmers and traveling salesmen and housewives and factory workers who thought they'd again get around to picking up the old oboe or the dust-caked cello. The project was organized last fall in Greenfield, Mass., with 22 members from the surrounding community. There are now 46 in the orchestra. Two concerts have been held, and hundreds of folks came to hear their neighbors play the classics.

The musicians are people who like to play from sheer enjoyment, and whose composite talent is appreciated by everyone in the neighborhood. In a small way, it is a revival of a movement that lost ground when the various forms of "canned" music invaded homes.

It is the kind of project that can spring up anywhere. Big cities need have no monopoly on symphony music. Any community that wants it will find plenty of talent in all sorts of unsuspected places.

For instance, consider what Sedalia has accomplished!

• The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson and Robert S. Allen

WASHINGTON—Last summer the President moved heaven and earth to get Congress out of Washington before it passed the Barden amendments which he believed would emasculate one of his favorite measures—the Wage-Hour Act.

When Congress adjourned without passing the amendments, Roosevelt's friends feared he might have even a tougher battle when Congress came back in January. However, Congress has been in session for two months and little has been heard of the amendments, although they can be called up any time under a House rule. Odds are the amendments will be dropped.

Number one reason for the change of heart by Wage-Hour critics is Colonel Philip Fleming.

Fleming, dapper little army officer, assumed an appeaser's role after he succeeded Elmer Andrews as head of the agency. He re-interpreted certain sections of the act and quieted many critics, mainly in the South.

The cautious colonel privately has instructed his investigators to pass up any case when there is any doubt as to whether it comes under the act, and although this conservative policy has riled liberals and labor leaders who demand vigorous enforcement, their complaints to the White House have got nowhere.

NOTE—Another important development is the fact that the author of the sweeping amendments, able Congressman Graham Barden of North Carolina, has cooled on the whole idea. He has had numerous conferences with Colonel Fleming and is working out ways and means by which all the Wage-Hour kinks can be ironed out administratively.

George Washington on 3rd Term

Story within the story of the discovery of George Washington's surprise letter in defense of a third term is that President Roosevelt knew of its existence two years ago. However, he never mentioned it, though New Deal intimates who have come out for a third term would have given their eyeteeth for such a potent weapon.

A photostat of the letter from Washington to Lafayette was first sent to Roosevelt on Washington's birthday in 1938 by George L. Rees, Brooklyn, N. Y. historian and collector of rare documents.

"I wanted to smoke him out," recalls Rees. "But it was no soap. He only sent me a polite note thanking me for the 'original greetings'. I waited, thinking some of his friends might get hold of the letter and publish it, but nothing happened."

Rees waited two years and then made a second attempt to gain national recognition for the precious manuscript which he had unearthed from the dusty files of the Library of Congress. He walked into a New York newspaper office with his find and shyly asked if it would not be timely to publish it in view of the third term furore.

The letter made headlines; for the refusal of President Washington to accept a third term set a hitherto unbroken precedent, and the note to Lafayette repudiated this accepted theory.

"I can see no propriety," he wrote to General Lafayette, " in precluding ourselves from the services of any man, who in some great emergency, shall be deemed, universally, most capable of serving the public."

How Rees discovered the letter is a story in itself.

Because there were no organized political parties in Washington's day and in view of his known predilection for exceptional men in the public service, the 60-year-old Brooklyn historian says he "could not conceive of George Washington opposing a good president from continuing in office for three terms."

Acting on this hunch, he spent days combing through hundreds of Washington's letters in the manuscript section of the library. The task seemed hopeless until he found the First President's ancient, leather-bound letter copy book. Under date of April 28, 1788, while Washington was living in post-war retirement at Mount Vernon, Rees found the letter he was looking for.

Dewey's Farm Speech

Tom Dewey has picked Lincoln, Neb., as the stage for his farm speech on March 6. Senator Taft aired his agricultural views in Des Moines, Ia.

Dewey's speech, now in the process of careful preparation by his brain trust, will follow closely the farm section of the report of the Glenn Frank Program Committee, which blasted New Deal bureaucracy but inferentially endorsed AAA crop benefit payments. In addition Dewey will also confer with Representative Clifford Hope of Kansas, chairman of the House GOP Agricultural Committee, which conducted a number of public hearings on a farm plank throughout the Mid-West last fall.

The Hope Committee also favors continuance of benefit payments but advocates putting the emphasis on soil conservation rather than on acreage control as does the New Deal. The committee feels this is better psychology and politics, since it avoids running headon into farmer reluctance to hold down output.

Demaret Adds To His Winnings

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 27—(AP)—New Orleans open champion Jimmy Demaret and the other touring golfers headed for Florida today, assured there would be a welcome — and another $10,000—here for them next year.

J. P. Skelly, city property commissioner, dispelled doubts as to the tournament's immediate future with an announcement that Mayor Robert S. Maestri had agreed to guarantee the purse for 1941.

Because of complexities of Louisiana politics and the beating that Maestri's organization took in the recent state Democratic primary, it had been feared the tourney, ending yesterday, would be the last. The prize money has come out of Maestri's personal bank account.

Jimmy Demaret, of Houston, Tex., increased his 1940 money winnings to $5,377 by his uphill fight for first place and $2,000 yesterday.

His 68, one off the course record, brought his 72-hole total to 286. It was his fourth victory in eight starts this year.

Ben Hogan, another Texan now living at White Plains, N. Y., has pocketed $2,785 this year for second ranking in money winnings.

When the day's rounds began yesterday, Hogan and Harold 'Ju McSpaden of Winchester, Mas were tied for the leadership 214; Sam Snead of Shawnee, P and Lloyd Mangrum of Oak Par Ill., had 215; and at 217 were Marvin Stahl of Lansing, Mich.; Cra Wood of Mamaroneck, N. Y., an Ralph Guldahl of Chicago. Demaret was tied with two others at 218.

McSpaden took a 73 to tie for second at 287 with Snead, who shot par 72, and Guldhal, who turned in a 70. Hogan slipped to 75 and a sixth-place tie at 289; Mangrum took 75 and Wood 73 to tie for eighth at 290; and Stahl's 71 put him fifth with 288.

Mine Damages A Battleship

LONDON, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, disclosed today that the British battleship Nelson had been damaged by a magnetic mine and the Battleship Barham hit by a torpedo. He added both were soon to rejoin the fleet.

Churchill disclosed that the British navy had not used Scapa Flow, the great North Sea naval base, since the Battleship Royal Oak was sunk there by a German submarine last October 13 with a loss of 810 lives.

Churchill also predicted intensification of sea warfare and declared that Britain's fleet soon was to be reinforced by five modern battleships.

The Nelson, he said, was damaged by a mine early in September and was able to reach port under her own steam.

Wife Says Shooting of Husband Accidental

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 27.—(AP)—Lawrence Livermore, 31, a motor mechanic, was near death this afternoon after being shot through the neck. Mrs. Livermore told police she shot her husband when a pistol which she was handling went off accidentally. The couple had been married since January 2.

Plays At High School Given On Two Nights

Judges For Events On Thursday And Friday Nights

The annual intermural plays, sponsored by the student council, will be held in the Smith-Cotton high school auditorium Thursday and Friday nights, starting at 7 o'clock. Each class will present a play, directed by two students of the dramatics class.

The plays and actors are to be judged both nights, and the results will be decided Friday evening after the final play. A gold placque will be awarded the class having the best play, and a camera will be presented to the student chosen to be the best actor. The two students selling the most tickets, one each in the senior and junior division, will receive cash awards of $2 each.

The judges Thursday night will be Rev. R. E. Hurd, Mrs. J. T. Alexander and Mrs. R. A. Park. Friday night Rev. John M. Van der Meulen, Mrs. Frank S. Leach and Mrs. H. L. Hill of Smithton.

The sponsors of the classes are: Eight grade, Mrs. Elizabeth Rissler and Burney Morriss; freshmen Forest Drake and Albert Steiner; sophomore, Mrs. Mildred Faulkner and Wilford Bell; junior, Miss Mila Swearingen and Miss Maude Sanders; senior, Miss Eunice Cousley and Kenneth Raab.

Goal To Keep Out Of Politics

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Feb. 27. —(AP)—State WPA Administrator B. Marvin Casteel has two principal goals, he said here today.

They are:

1. "To carry out projects which will still be benefitting the public when you and I have long, white beards."
2. To keep the WPA out of politics.

He and his companions, George H. Fields, regional WPA director of Chicago; A. D. Morrell, chief regional engineer, also of Chicago, and V. W. Whitfield, state director of operations, of Jefferson City, were to visit Farmington after leaving here today.

Casteel confirmed reports from Washington that he had written to Howard Hunter, deputy WPA administrator, to deny complaints that he is "building up a political machine in Missouri for Governor Stark or anyone else."

"When I took this job," Casteel, former chief of the highway patrol, said, "I said I was going to keep the WPA out of politics and take politics out of the WPA. I think I have done so, up to now, and intend to continue to do so."

The Washington dispatches said several supervisors and straw bosses had been dismissed in Henry county recently. Some of them, it was reported, were close friends of Senator Harry S. Truman, whose senate seat Governor Stark is seeking.

Casteel said he would not enlarge on his statement to Hunter on these reports.

Stocks Decline In Day's Deals

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Stocks sank to previous levels today after a fe whours of unsupported rallying.

Prices were fractionally lower approaching the close despite early gains of full points. Transactions totaled about 50,000 shares.

On the decline were Bethlehem, Chrysler, American Telephone, Western Union, Anaconda, Allied Chemical, Union Carbide, International Paper preferred, and New York Central.

Among the slightly improved were Westinghouse, Pan American Airways, Douglas, United Aircraft, Sears Roebuck, Loft, and Brooklyn-Manhattan Transit preferred.

Armistice In World War Halted Plan of Pershing

trals, especially Spain, to join the allies.

With that all-front action General Pershing believed "the defeat of Germany, which he now considers certain, would be hastened."

President Wilson replied on Sept. 2:

"Such a message as this from General Pershing surprises me very much. It is the first time he has undertaken to give advice, political as well as military, in this way.

"I am clear that it would be out of the question for me to urge, without the (at least intimated) concurrence of the supreme cilitary council, such action in all the military theatres of the war; and it is equally clear to me that events, not only suggestions from us, will determine the action of Bulgaria and Turkey.

"(Secretary of War) Baker, as you know, is now on the water, on his way to the other side, and Pershing will have the opportunity to confer with him about the whole matter."

The armistice on Nov. 11 came before General Pershing had the opportunity to push his plan any further.

Salesman Found Dead In His Car

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., Feb. 27.—(AP)—Coroner E. R. Trickey said today he had not decided whether a formal inquest would be held in the death of Jake Frutiger, 63-year-old salesman, whose body was found in his automobile on a suburban road yesterday.

The coroner said death appeared to have been due to natural causes but added he might order an autopsy.

Frutiger, salesman for Parke Davis and Company, had traveled in southeast Missouri for 25 years. He resided in a Cape Girardeau hotel.

Would Expand Tenant Program

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27—(AP)—The house agriculture committee proposed today a $350,000,000 expansion of the farm tenant program, declaring it could be accomplished by mortgage insurance without additional strain on the federal treasury.

The committee, in recommending the plan to the house, recalled that under the original 1937 law permitting direct loans, collections have far exceeded payments due and delinquincies have been negligible.

But the members said that only 10,000 loans to tenants to buy farms could be made under the present law, which authorizes a revolving fund of not more than $50,000,000 annually.

"This bill," the committee said, "substantially expands the program now authorizes without any resulting drain on the treasury.

This result is accomplished by authorizing a system of mortgage insurance by which private funds would be made available to finance farm ownership and refinance indebtedness of present owners."

The measure would create a revolving fund which would increase from $50,000,000 for the first year to $200,000,000 three years later.

Is Fatally Injured by Pushed Automobile

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 27.—(AP)—An automobile he and two companions pushed to start for an unidentified man crashed into a parked truck last night, fatally injuring Ralph Gatterman, 14, and seriously hurting his two pals. The boys were riding on the running board. The driver fled.

Fined For Lack of 1940 Automobile Plates

Mrs. C. H. Howard, Nevada, Mo., and James McCann, Springfield, arrested by Constable Forrest Poindexter for failure to obtain their 1940 automobile license plates for their cars, brought fines of $5 each and costs in the court of Justice of the Peace J. C. Connor.

August A. Streeter, Springfield, who was arrested for not having his license, is appearing before Justice of the Peace W. H. Leslie this afternoon.

French Destroyer Sinks German "Sub"

PARIS, Feb. 27.—(AP)— The naval ministry announced tonight that the French destroyer Simoun had sunk a German submarine off Cape Finisterre, northwest Spain.

miles northwest of Finland's Petsamo fjord, said the ships had been sunk in the Petsamo vicinity, but did not say whether they were warships, or merchantment, and gave no details of the action.

Presence in the Arctic waters of a British naval squadron of undetermined strength was confirmed last week. Press reports said the French warships also were on hand, apparently in a move to blockade shipping from Soviet Russia to Germany.

The Petsamo district shore now is in the hands of the invading Russian army.

At this point, the coasts of Russia and Norway are only a few miles apart. To the east is the Russian port of Murmansk, where a number of German merchant ships tock refuge last fall. Several of them, including the liner Bremen, later sailed down the Norwegian coast and reached Germany.

The identity of any remaining German ships at Murmansk was secret.

If the newly-reported sinkings occurred in Norwegian waters, Norway might be confronted by another neutrality - threatening case similar to the Altmark incident.

After a British naval boarding party removed 299 British seamen from the German prison ship Altmark in Norwegian waters February 16, the British and French declared German ships were using Norway's waters to avoid the allied blockade.

Subsequently, the allied warships took up their Arctic patrol.

Heavy Troop Movements

BRUSSELS, Feb. 27—(AP)—Artillery fire of increased intensity was reported to be shaking houses of the frontier villages of neutral little Luxembourg today while heavy German troop movements were sighted across the Moselle (Mosel) river.

Unusually heavy road and rail traffic was visible across the river. A steady stream of cavalry, cyclists, infantry, ammunition and food columns have been noticeable since Saturday.

The Obermosel Zeitung said barracks had sprung up over night halfway between Nennig and Besch in the Rhineland region.

Observers could not say whether the German troops moving southward were maneuvering or reinforcing troops in the Saar section.

Eyewitnesses said they had seen an officer they believed to be Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goering among a group of German officials standing on a bridge near Echternach over the Sauer river Saturday.

Schoolboy In A Six Story Plunge To Death

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—(AP)—"Please print my life story . . ."

A 16-year-old schoolboy left that written request today before drinking coffee mixed with poison and plunging six stories to his death from the window of a west side Y. M. C. A. hotel room.

A 5-cent home assignment notebook, with the heading "The Story of My Life," was found on the table in his room.

Would Oppose A Third Term

ALBANY, N. Y., Feb. 27.—(AP)—Republicans of President Roosevelt's home state gleefully railroaded through the legislature today a Democrat's resolution memorializing congress to forbid a third term for any president.

Assembly action completed a coup begun last night when Democratic senate leaders were caught sleeping and permitted the resolution to pass without protest on a voice vote.

Republicans, controlling the assembly, 86 to 65, approved the action today 82 to 47 amid cheers from the majority and boos from the minority group.

Judge Ewing C. Bland To Seek Third Term

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 27.—(AP)—Judge Ewing C. Bland of the Kansas City Court of Appeals filed his candidacy today for a third term on the bench he has occupied for 24 years. He is a Democrat and is the first to file for the appeals court post thus far.

Judge Louis H. Schult, Democrat, of Caruthersville filed as a candidate to succeed himself as judge of the 38th judicial circuit.

Additional Society

Mrs. Eleanor Edmiston, of San Diego, Calif., formerly of Sedalia, will arrive in Sedalia Friday to be the guest that day of Mrs. Elza Berry, and other friends.

That evening Mrs. Berry will be at home informally, at her home, 919 South Osage avenue, from 4 to 6:30 o'clock, that Mrs. Edmiston's friends may have an opportunity of seeing her. It is necessary for her to leave about 7 o'clock and Mrs. Berry has arranged her at home hours to conform with that plan.

Mrs. Edmiston, the former Eleanor Berry of Sedalia, is president of the San Diego, Calif., teachers' association, and as such is representing her organization in St. Louis at the educational conference in St. Louis this week.

An Immense Lemon

A lemon, weighing one pound, and measuring 13 1-2 by 12 1-2 inches, was grown by Mrs. Bes Gumm, at Eldon, on a tree which has thirty lemons, nearly all that large.

The Lemon described above was brought to the Democrat office this morning and shown to the staff.

Sedalia Twelve Mile Special Road District

To the Honorable Mayor and City Council of Sedalia, Missouri and the Honorable County Court of Pettis County Missouri.

Gentlemen:

We herewith beg to submit the report of our work and financial statement of receipts and disbursements of the Sedalia Twelve Mile Special Road District from Dec. 31, 1938 to Dec. 31, 1939.

We wish to call your attention to the enclosed report of roads and bridges reconstructed during the year which has been accomplished along with all necessary repairs and maintenance work required on other roads.

A good portion of this work was made possible by W. P. A. projects and the cooperation of all W. P. A. officials to whom we are grateful.

YESTERDAY: Ann sees the boy across the alley writing a letter, decides he is the "Lonely" of the ad. Elated, she goes to the Center, completes her dress. She is thrilled with the prospect of meeting "Lonely" on Saturday.

CHAPTER V

THE following morning Ann stopped at the postoffice and was handed a letter. She went to a desk and slit the envelope, noting that the stationery was of nice quality, that the handwriting, although a bit stilted, was masculine and honest looking.

Lonely had written, "My Dear Miss Smith: Yours of the third inst., received and contents noted. In reply will suggest that you name a meeting place. At said meeting will you please wear a white flower for means of identification? I will do the same. Respectfully yours, K295."

Ann read the letter again, her excitement a little dashed. It was so lacking in the saving grace of humor, so utterly without personality. She crushed it in her bag and, more disappointed than she would admit even to herself, went on to the re-making of hats.

Ann experienced several reactionary moods that morning. The first was indignation at herself for having been a poor fool, the second an inclination to laugh at "Yours of the third inst.," and the last a definite let-down of spirit. It was incredible that the little episode had meant so much in her uneventful life.

On the heels of disappointment came reason. After all, what had she expected? What, if anything, was wrong with the dignified letter? Wasn't it proof that the writer was a gentleman? Would not a flippant answer have been offensive?

At noon she obtained stationery from the matron in a department store lounge and wrote a letter to K295. It was as brief and to the point as his had been.

"My Dear K295: If satisfactory to you I will meet you in front of the Blashfield painting in the foyer of the public library at 7 on Saturday evening. I will wear a white gardenia. Sincerely, Ann Smith."

SATURDAY came face to face with itself on the calendar at last. As there would not be time to return to her room after 5 o'clock, Ann dressed for the great event early in the morning. The new frock was a triumph. The skirt was short and flaring, the little jacket tight and well fitting. The pancake hat was vastly becoming, the scarf and gloves added a dashing touch.

Arriving at the shop, Ann turned this way and that before Mrs. Pringle's admiring eyes. Admiring eyes had followed her on the El and in the street. Her bronze hair shone, the soft curls clung lovingly to her white neck. Rich color dyed her cheeks, her mouth was poppy red. She walked and stood with the assured confidence of looking her best.

"How do you like it, Mrs. Pringle?" she asked, shining eyed.

"Hm-m." Mrs. Pringle's dull eyes were slightly envious as she regarded Ann's slim hips and stylishly broad shoulders, her flat little waistline and sweetly rounded breast. "Well, I must say you did all right, Ann," she said. "You could give that Irene Temple aces and spades and still win by a length. Too bad you ain't going to a cocktail party out on the North Side."

Ann, who had not again mentioned newspaper personals to Mrs. Pringle, smiled radiantly. "I think I'll see a show tonight," she fibbed, "just to celebrate."

She busied herself with a shapeless mass of felt and the pendulum of her emotions began to swing again. As the day advanced, it swung faster and faster. By the time Mrs. Pringle hurried away shortly before closing time to do her Sunday marketing, Ann was a prickly bundle of nerves and thwarted impulses. At 6, half mad with indecision, she tremblingly smoothed cold cream on her face, removed it with a sweet smelling pad, and applied powder. Her cheeks burned hotly, the use of a lipstick would have been sacrilege.

Ann took the gardenia from a glass where it had reposed since noon and pinned it to her lapel. She adjusted the smart little hat. Suddenly she was crying.

"I can't do it," she sobbed furiously. "Darn it all—what's the matter with me? I'm a coward. I've put on the brakes for so long that I can't let go."

Removing the gardenia, she threw it on the work table. Angrily she snatched the hat from her head. "I won't go a step," she muttered fiercely. "I absolutely refuse to make a fool of myself. I'll drop the whole crazy business and forget it. For the rest of my life I'll just—just twirl my thumbs."

Her chin wobbled and her voice shook. "For fun and excitement, I'll look across the alley at that young man. When I want to be really hilarious I'll go to the Center and make a dress that no one will ever see." She sat down, burying her head on a bent arm. "Maybe—when I'm old—I won't care," she sobbed.

AFTER a while Ann lifted her head and stared about the cluttered room. This and another room, not quite so cluttered but no more beautiful, were her life. She had no one, not a single person of her own. All her life would be like this. Again she wept. Then, out of emotional chaos, she remembered that another person, just like herself, so lonely that he had flung his desperation to the four winds, would wait in front of the Blashfield painting at the public library.

Ann again applied a scented pad to her face. She put on fresh powder. She pulled the little hat to just the right angle. Examining the gardenia for signs of bruise, she firmly pinned it to her lapel.

She had decided upon a course. She'd locate herself in the reading room where she could view the Blashfield painting without being seen. When K295 appeared she would be able to make a snap judgment as to his possibilities. If necessary, she could dispose of the gardenia and thus obviate a difficult situation. The plan was not exactly fair, it definitely put K295 at a disadvantage, but it was a protective measure and Ann prepared to act upon it.

Ann ordered an egg salad sandwich—there was no tax on a 10-cent sandwich—in a drug store near the shop. She noticed the waitresses and the cashier. How much did they make? Were they, too, scrimping and saving within the confines of a budget? Perhaps some of them lived with their families. Would $15 a week go farther or less far if you had a family? That, she supposed, would depend upon the earning power of the family.

The waitresses laughed and joked among themselves and Ann envied them. Friends. Did they appreciate what it meant to have friends? She heard one girl tell another that her boy friend had been given a raise—$18 a week now. The girl spoke proudly, her eyes shone. Dividing her happiness made it seem more real, more precious.

As she left the drug store she heard a bus boy whistle. "Class," he said, obviously referring to her. "I wish someone would tell me where dames find the swag to dress like that."

Fortified by the obscure compliment, Ann wandered slowly along State street to Randolph. Turning here, she went on to Wabash. Her knees shook as she went into the library.

Presidential Candidates

Each paragraph below describes briefly one of the many prominent men who have either announced themselves candidates for the presidential nominations or have been spoken of frequently in connection with the 1940 race. Tell which man is referred to in each group:

1. Known as a "glamor politician"; served as governor-general of the Phillippines.
2. New York representative who attended Oslo, Norway, conference last summer.
3. Youthful, racket-busting district attorney.
4. Spoke at recent convention of United Mine Workers at Columbus, O.
5. Son of a president.

During 1939, domestic airlines of the United States flew 82,554,239 revenue miles, an 18.50 per cent increase over 1938.

At the end of 1939, 30,969,754 cars and trucks were in use in the United States. This is a five per cent gain over 1938.

The first appropriation for the development of aviation in the U. S. Navy, for $25,000, was made in 1911. This was for the purchase of two Curtiss and one Wright planes, the balance to be used to construct a hanger and landing field.

It is reported that by January, 1941, a stratosphere airport will be constructed at Miami, Fla. The field will be the largest in the world having paved runways covering 6.4 miles.

THE Frances E. Willard 5-cent blue stamp, fourth of the educators group of the U. S. Famous Americans issue, will be placed on first-day sale at Evanston, Ill., March 28. It was in Evanston that Miss Willard attended college, later was president of Evanston College for Ladies.

Joining the temperance crusade in 1874, Miss Willard delivered her first prayer in public in a Pittsburgh saloon. She was president of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union for 19 years. In 1883, she helped found an international W. C. T. U., headed it for 15 years. She died of influenza in 1898.

Mother May Be To Blame When Child Wets Bed

Sneering Doesn't Help Cure Habit

Dr. Doris M. Odlum points out that one of the commonest causes of bed-wetting is lack of cleanliness and training in infancy and early childhood.

This is usually the fault of the mother, and is due sometimes to laziness or sheer indifference. In other instances, it may be that the mother wants to keep the child a baby as long as possible, and then, when a new baby comes, the mother suddenly wants the older child to become independent. She begins to scold the bed-wetter. Such treatment usually fails, and the constant nagging and sneering may destroy the child's self-confidence.

Noteworthy among the recent investigations was the discovery of the fact that bed-wetting is much more prevalent among boys than among girls, but the reason for this has never been satisfactorily discovered. Scientists believe that it is probably due to the fact that mothers show more indulgence toward their sons.

Occasionally, children wet the bed because of some physical difficulty. Attempts are sometimes made to stop bed wetting by preventing the child from having enough water. Actually this makes the condition worse because it makes the waste matter more concentrated and, therefore, more irritating.

In approaching the control of the condition from a psychological point of view, Dr. Odlum gives a few exceedingly practical suggestions. Plenty of fluid should be given in the early part of the day, but little at the evening meal and none after the evening meal, unless the child complains of thirst. Then only a little water should be sipped. Tea, coffee and other caffeine drinks should not be used by children.

The room in which the child sleeps should be well ventilated but not too cold. The bedclothing should be light and warm. The garments worn at night should not cause pressure or irritation. Sometimes, raising the foot of the bed a few inches helps to relax pressure on the neck of the bladder.

Facilities for developing the child's self-reliance should be close to the bed. Sometimes a child will react well if a receptacle is placed next to the bed where it can be seen. It is also suggested that it is good practice for all children to help in making up their beds, because this will give them practical evidence of the unpleasantness of handling moistened bedclothing.

Usually a child learns to stop this habit between the ages of 18 months and two years. Persistent wetting of the bed at any age after five years is clearly a condition that ought to have serious attention.

The U. S. Bureau of Fisheries greatly increased public demand for dogfish as a food by changing the name to grayfish.

Society And Clubs

"Consumer Relations" was the theme of a program presented by four speakers as Sorosis Monday afternoon in the Heard Memorial clubhouse, with topics ranging from food to furs.

Mrs. W. F. Keyser discussed buying facts about furs and jewelry, and particularly interesting were her suggestions on how to select furs and her listing of the classifications. She also listed "do's and don'ts in the care of furs.

Speaking of silver fox, one of the most flattering of furs, Mrs. Keyser said that there are 4000 silver fox fur farms in the United States and 6000 in Canada.

She defined costume jewelry, now so much in vogue, as the chemists' answer to a women's prayer, an inexpensive way to satisfy desires for glitter. Mrs. Keyser explained the values of the different precious stones, beginning with diamonds.

Discussing canned food, Mrs. E. E. Brasfield revealed that eight billion cans of food are consumed annually in the United States. The basic principle of good canned food, she said, is sterilization. There are about 300 varieities of canned foods now on the market.

Mrs. Glenn Warren, chairman of the Civics departments of Sorosis, read a paper entitled "The Passing of the Motto Caveat Emptor (Let the Buyer Beware)," which was prepared by Mrs. Gilbert Jones.

It was pointed out that the production of food is the world's oldest industry, and from production through processing and distribution it gives employment to more than one-third of the population. An interesting fact was that it is estimated that the average adult consumes about one ton of food each year, resulting in the expenditure of one-fourth of the nation's income for food.

This paper included comments on present-day inspections and regulations in packing plants and guarantees of food manufacturers that are safeguards for the consumers.

In a talk on "The Consumer and Her Medicine Chest" Mrs. T. H. Yount named the 16 essential chemical elements of the human body. A medicine chest, she said, should contain only standard package materials and be used only for emergencies, warning against home treatments that might jeopardize one's life.

She emphasized the chemical values of food, stressing that they may be used to restore energy and health.

During the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. E. W. Brubaker, president, the following were named on the nominating committee for the election of officers this spring: Miss Nettie Lamm, chairman, Mrs. Lee Montgomery and Mrs. E. P. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rodgers were honored with a surprise dinner at their home, 1415 South Carr avenue, by relatives and friends Sunday, the occasion being their birthday anniversary.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Rodgers and daughter, Peggy De Ann, Miss Ruby Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Roades and son, Manlon, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Glen Roades and daughter, Glenda Lee, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Barge, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jenkins, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jenkins, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Burford Jenkins.

Dinners honoring the sons of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Wise, 1614 South Osage avenue, were given at the Wise home Sunday, February 25 and also on February 18.

On the first date, February 18, the honor guest was their son John Wise, home from the navy on a visit. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chapman and children, Glenn, Thomas and Beulah, Mrs. Wm. Bailey, Herbert Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Greer, Mrs. Laura Whiteman, Mrs. H. S. Carson, children, Clinton, Lafe, Donald, Leora and Alice, Gene Robert Smith.

The dinner on the 25th honored that son and another, Francis Wise, at home from the Quartermaster's department at Fort Leavenworth, where he is in the U. S. army. On this occasion guests were Mr. and Mrs. John Wills and children, Junior, Armelia, Grace and Donald, George Cramer and Ernest Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Shull observed their golden wedding anniversary quietly at their home near Hughesville Sunday. Mr. Shull who is 74 and Mrs. Shull 67 have lived at their present home 34 years. They have five living children and two died in infancy. The living are Lee B. Shull, Kansas City, Kas., Mrs. Guy Mahin, La Monte, Hollie W. Shull, Sedalia, Erbee F. Shull, Kansas City and Mrs. John Shull, Hughesville. They were together for the first time since the birth of the youngest child, twenty-five years ago.

A bountiful dinner was served at the noon hour, to which all contributed. The table was decorated with a large two tier wedding cake, on which were the words "Golden Wedding Anniversary" in gold letters. On top stood a miniature bride and bridegroom dressed in the style of fifty years ago.

Grandchildren present were, Iris Lee Shull, of Kansas City, Laura Val, Charlotte and Arthur Mahin, Norma Dean, Jackie and Marvin Shull of Kansas City and Ruby Fay and Ella Christine Silsby of the home. Two grandchildren of Erbie Shull and three older grandchildren, who are in college, were unable to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Shull received gifts, cards and messages and among the gifts was a cameo brooch for Mrs. Shull from her oldest son.

C. T. Templeton and family, who for forty years have lived on a farm near Green Ridge, and who are moving to La Monte this spring, were surprised by a number of their friends Thursday night. The guests brought refreshments and spent a very pleasant evening.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bucher, Don Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Purchase, Miss Geneva Farley, Mrs. T. C. Abney, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sinclair and daughters, Ruth Elizabeth and Laura Lee, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Arnett, Miss Gladys Arnett, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kabler and son, John Earl, Eldon Arnett, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Curtis and sons, Paul and Clay, Mr. and Mrs. George Perriguey and children, Marguerite, Ruth and Ralph Walter Carpter, Robert Wimer, Mr. and Mrs. Cale Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Arnett and daughter Betty Sue, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Merl Templeton and son Wayne Curby, Miss Mildred Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Price Ruffin and children, Kenneth, Evelyn, Dausell, Cauell and Rosella, Charles Reed, Mrs. Emma Templeton, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Templeton and sons, Edgar and Lee.

Guests at this home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Templeton and daughter, Dorothy and Evelyn, of Windsor, Charlie Williams and son, Lloyd.

The altos of the Helen G. Steele Music club will meet for rehearsal at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning at the Heard Memorial club house and the first and second sopranos will meet there at 2 p. m.

Church Events

The Philathea C. J. U. class of the First Methodist church will hold their regular monthly meeting at 2:30 p. m. on Thursday, February 29 at the home of Mrs. Odis Nowlin, 620 South Massachusetts avenue.

Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. W. W. Dittmer and Mrs. E. S. Lugen. A good attendance is desired.

The Arnold circle of the Epworth Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Edgar Ringen, of 1219 East Eleventh street.

Fellowship Of Prayer

Going Home

Tuesday, February 27. And every man went unto his own house. (And every one of them went home—Moffatt.) Read John 7:48-53.

Most days—momentous or trivial—end like that. We go home again; along familiar roads, shaded village streets or city sidewalks, by motor car or commuters' train and the invisible, deeply worn ways of habit; and never consider how the substance of all our peace and happiness is waiting for us "at home"—until there is no home to go to.

The most tragic distinction in our world today is between those who go home to happy safety and those for whom no home is waiting; or else a home shadowed by fear. Life and the world are secure, when we can go securely home; blessedly right when the "home" is love and kindness, rest and peace.

Prayer: O Thou Who settest the solitary in families, we thank Thee for sheltering walls and roofs and their furnishings of peace and love. Forgive us the homeless in a world where all might be secure, the lonely where all might have friends, the fearful who but for our folly and passion might look up to the stars unterrified. Bless the end of every day with our going home and the end of all our days still with a final going home. In His Name, Who through His homelessness, has blessed all the homes. Amen.

DALE CARNEGIE

Author of "How To Win Friends And Influence People"

If you are not 40 years old you may not be interested in this column today. If you are 40, or over, you may be intensely interested.

One of the greatest authorities in the United States tells us how much we should exercise after 40. Here it is, from "Hygeia" Magazine, which is issued by the American Medical Association. It is written by Dr. Henry Christian, professor of medicine at Harvard University. Here are his exact words.

"When past 40, beware of vigorous exertion, 'daily dozens' and the like, especially you who have led sedentary lives. Those who have exercised regularly and kept in training may be allowed to continue this practice but they are not in the over-weight class as a rule, and even they should reduce their exercise as the years advance.

"Many, when young, exercise vigorously and participate in competitive games, but they try to keep up such activity as they grow older and often do themselves injury. The temptation to keep on is great. Most men and women cling tenaciously to the idea that they are exceptions to the normal aging process. It is a sad sight to see older men or women wending their way in from tennis courts or golf links, weary of foot, drawn in expression, their faces frushed or ashen, foolishly proud to be able to declare that at 60 their activities are unabated. Such a picture greets the eye almost daily at country clubs and on golf courses. These people lack either the sense or the courage to admit that they are growing older and that former activity is becoming increasingly fatiguing. They persuade themselves that such exercise is necessary for their well being. In fact, a progressive decrease in bodily exertion is what they need.

"Most harmful of all is periodic, irregular, vigorous exercise. Most pernicious is the habit, so common in America, of the weekend or all-day golf game or other exercises, or the brief vacation when days are filled with incessant activity, for the individual who ordinarily leads a life nearly devoid of physical exertion. All too often people collapse or die as the result of unwonted exertion or precipitate an attack of serious heart disturbance, which then necessitates weeks of enforced rest.

"If after one hour of rest, you are still conscious of considerable fatigue, next time shorten the amount or decrease the vigor of the exercise."

Students in the Personality Development classes in the public schools in New Orleans are required to paste in their scrap books daily these true stories of how other men and women have attained success. They study them as a textbook. Why don't you make a scrap book of them and use them as a textbook on success? The methods that have helped others to achieve their goal will very likely help you. Don't merely read them, but study them and see if there aren't some that you can apply.

Parents of a Son

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shepherd, 325 North Park avenue, are parents of a son, Lloyd Dean, born Friday, February 23.

CHEST COLD MISERY

FIRST—rub throat, chest, and back with Vicks VapoRub at bedtime.

THEN—spread a thick layer of VapoRub on the chest and cover with a warmed cloth.

RIGHT AWAY, VapoRub goes to work—loosens phlegm—eases muscular soreness or tightness—clears air passages—relieves coughing. And often by morning, most of the misery of the cold is gone.
